

Victor and Victoria's
Song lyrics.

"We Can Tell How Dogs Are Feeling"

We can tell how dogs are feeling
No need to say a thing.
Happy, frightened or angry
His body says everything

Now if he's feeling angry
He can't yell I'm cross.
He'll look really big and stare.
And snarl to say I'm boss.
Now if he's feeling frightened
He'll tuck his tail down low
Looking really small he says
Please leave me alone

We can tell how dogs are feeling
No need to say a thing.
Happy, frightened or angry
His body says everything

Now if he's feeling happy.
He'll hold his head up high
His tongue may hang out loosely
Tail wagging side to side

He may be cute and happy.
And you may want to pat him so much
Don't forget our golden rule
No owner, no leash, no touch!
No owner, no leash, no touch!
No owner, no leash, no touch!
